After Heber's death, his widow came across the words to Holy! Holy! Holy! However, more than three decades before the poem became a song and took its place in numerous worship services. The tune, Nicaea, was composed for the hymn by John Bacchus Dykes. A publisher came upon Heber's words and asked Dykes to furnish a tune.

The Story of the Holy Shadow. There once lived a saint so good that the angels came from heaven to see how a man could be so godly. This saint went about his daily life diffusing virtue as the stars diffuse light and the flowers scent, without being aware of it. His day could be summed up by two words — he gave, he forgave — yet these words never passed his lips.
